Mississippi Sportsman Acquires Large Pack of Trained Bear Dogs

THOMAS McHENRY, Macon, Miss.

Mr. McHenry, for some years recognized as one of the leading sportsmen in Mississippi, has bought from J. M. Avent, of Hickory Valley, Tenn., his entire pack of bear dogs. The deal was closed in Memphis Saturday. The pack consists of 32 dogs, headed by Lilly, Boss, Buck and Mike for strikes. They are supported by a good bunch of running hounds, half a dozen full-blooded Alandales and an equal number of half-Alandale and half-hound, for both running and fighting, and an equal number of tree dogs. There probably is not a better balanced bear pack in the country. Mr. Avent will continue to keep the pack for Mr. McHenry, and will exercise it regularly on tame bears.

WESTSIDE FAIR IS TO INCREASE CAPITAL STOCK

JACKSON, Tenn., Nov. 24. (Spl.)—Voting unanimously to increase the capital stock of the West Tennessee Fair association to $40,000 the stockholders passed the way Saturday afternoon for an annual event that will be second to none in the South insofar as live stock and agricultural exhibits and other salient features of a fair are concerned. This action came as a result of the eminent success achieved by Secretary W. P. Barry at the 1919 fair and upon his recommendation that the needs demanded expansion. Of the 28 stockholders present who represented some 50 shares and a like number of votes all spoke with perfect unanimity in order to keep step with the natural trend the 1920 fair must present an enlarged program. It was pointed out that the fair had ceased to be a Madison county event—it is West Tennessee-wide. Community and live stock exhibits from a large number of counties in this section during the past year showed conclusively that West Tennessee as a whole was looking to Jackson as the mecca.

The gate receipts of $11,057.45 for five days as presented in Secretary Barry's report showed the magnitude of the fair of 1919 which fact was further amplified by the unprecedented number of exhibits in all lines. The stockholders present with one accord sanctioned the proposal of the secretary who stated frankly that in order to meet the situation of 1920 there must needs be a doubling of space, energies, expenditures, etc. Among those who spoke so impressively of the needs of an enlarged program were Mayor J. D. Johnson, Bert Neely, A. M. Alexander, A. H. Askew, Albert S. Johnson, William A. Caldwell, Mike T. Baker, John Cockrell and B. A. Person.
